The University of Montana soccer team will be looking to extend its unbeaten streak to 13 Saturday afternoon when it hosts Washington State. Game time is 1:30 p.m. on the field behind the Fieldhouse.

The UM team is 3-0 on the season following weekend wins over Columbia Basin College and the University of Idaho.

Columbia Basin fell 11-0 in a contest so dominated by the UM team that Columbia Basin did not get a shot on goal. Ravi Thapa and Claus Urbye led the Montana attack with three goals apiece. Eddo Flurri and Andrew Hicks had two goals and Hank Gardner chipped in a single tally for the UM club.

Jan Brenterbraaten's hat trick scoring gave Montana a hard-fought 3-0 triumph over Idaho on Sunday.

Washington State and Idaho tied 3-3 earlier in the season and the UM squad is expecting a strong game from WSU.
